
GCS FAMILY BUSINESS GUIDE 2016-2017

In an effort to utilize the many skills and services that God has blessed each of us with, we have put together this GCS Family Business Guide. Our school parents, staff families, alumni and Business Partners in Education either own or are employed by the various businesses which are represented in this guide. The GCS Family Business Guide advertisements are available at no cost and all GCS families and staff were given the opportunity to submit information. As needs arise, please consider using the services and products represented in this business guide. We ask that you do not use this listing for any business mailing purposes, but for personal use only.
