

Grace Christian School
Upper School Science Teacher (FT)
Position Description

Last Updated: January 24, 2026

Grace Christian School (GCS) is seeking passionate and resourceful full-time and/or part-time science teachers for our Life Science (7th), Earth Science (8th) Physical Science (9th), Chemistry (11th), Environmental Science (12th), and Physics (12th) classes within our high school. Successful candidates will have the ability to guide students into obtaining a Biblical worldview of their being created in the image of God and thus having inherent rational, logical, inquisitive, and manipulative capacities even as they develop their scientific knowledge, skills, and talents.

Fundamental Qualifications:

1. Be a professing Christian who is active in a local church,
2. Obtained a bachelor's degree in an associated field or be an individual with requisite work experience,
3. Possess strong communication (written and verbal), people, organizational, and technological skills.

GCS, founded in 1980, assists Christian parents by providing a sound academic education in a Christ-centered environment designed to prepare our young people to know God and to live in obedience to His will for their lives. We are fully accredited by the Association of Christian Schools International (ACSI) and AdvancED/Southern Association of Colleges and Schools (SACS). Accreditation through these two organizations is in conjunction with the Virginia Council for Private Education (VCPE). For more details about GCS, please visit our website (<https://www.gcswarriors.org/>).

Staunton, a city of 25,000, is located in the beautiful Shenandoah Valley. It is the principal city of the Staunton-Waynesboro Metropolitan Statistical Area (125,000 people). The city has a historic downtown filled with small shops and restaurants, and a strong fine arts tradition.

The area around Staunton is rural farmland and has easy access to hiking and camping, as well as access to larger cities like Richmond, and Washington, D.C.
